Eco-Adventure Khao Sok Tour

Khao Sok National Park, known as the Guillin of Thailand, contains breathtaking limestone mountains, caves and canyons covered by the oldest evergreen rain forest in the world. Whether you are taking a daily river canoe trip or staying in a floating bamboo raft house on the Cheow Larn Lake, near the 94m Ratchappa Dam. Trekking through the National Park by foot. Or taking in the flora and fauna during an Elephant Nature Trek ...Khao Sok is a spectacular scenic experience not to be missed.
